Soviet Boss Shouts, Scowls, Leaps to Feet In Assembly Session

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) -Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain urged the United Nations today to make a calm, reasoned approach to disarmament. His speech was interrupted by angry heckling from Soviet Premier Niki a S. Khrushchev and the Communist bloc.

At one point the Soviet premier leaped to his feet, scowling, and shouted at the British leader as Macmillan was presenting a major statement of Western objec-

Khrushchev shouted Russian words at the British statesman at several points and led the Communist delegations in a new tablethumping demonstration of protest. The Soviet premier seemed irate.

When Khrushchev shouted his Russian words the assembly president gavelled him down. Macmillan remarked cooly: "I would like to have a translation of those words.' Macmillan was presenting a three-stage program designed to prepare the way for political action toward an arms agreement. The British leader, ranking Western statesman on hand for the U. N. General Assembly, won an ovation with a defense of Secre ary-General Dag Hammarskjold, whose office is under Soviet attack. And at this point Khrushchev led his bloc in the table-thumping smiling momentarily but the most part scowling angrily. A imiliar table thumping demonstration had greeted a Hammarskjod address Monday. When Macmillan raised a point about the breakup of the Paris summit conference last May, Khrushchev waggled a finger at the speaker and shouted something in Russian. Nearby delegates were s'artled. Macmillan ignored this first interruption.

high school students plan on going to college each year.

Students Face Bleak Future

Already many of the state universities are issuing warnings for students to apply early or they may have to wait to get in. Limited housing is largely responsible for the tight entrance situation.

Not all of the 43 privately - endowed colleges have reached capacity, but admission requirements are more strict, fees are often higher and not all courses are offered in every field.

HOWEVER, it is getting more difficult to gain entrance to private schools, most of whom are forced limit enrollments. State law requires that every graduate of an Ohio high school

Among college graduates, those financially able to continue their education and training for six more years are inade quate to need. The U.S. now has a smaller ratio of doctors to the general population than at any time since its infancy, and the number of medical students shows only a minor increase.

Increasing population not matched by an increase in the number of doctors is not the only factor contributing to a decline in satisfactory medical treatment. The average American, as a result of health awareness campaigns, now sees his family physician twice as often as did his parents. Hospitals are experiencing similar problems, with inadequate nursing and technician staffs, a declining number of interns and beds filled with patients who in years past were not considered ill enough to be admitted to a hos-

Medicine is not an unattractive profession, but the initial outlay required is prohibitive enough to prevent all but a few of those who would like to make a career in medicine from doing so. The obvious solution to the problem lies in the financing of a medical education. Aside from government interference and subsidy, which

Doctors are losing the race to keep should be the last resort, there are many ways in which aid can be given to a young men or woman indicating interest in a medical career.

> Many communities, particularly small towns which would other wise be unable to attract adequate medical personnel. combine their resources to offer a doctor inducements ranging from a community - purchased office or clinic to a guaranteed annual income. Large corporations and farm organizations have provided similar incentives in communities where there was no doctor.

Many business firms, frequently not related to the field of medicine, annually make a grant for medical scholarships. Foundations, trusteeships and private individuals do the same. But it costs an average of $47,000 to educate and equip the average doctor who does not specialize; $20,000 more for those who qualify for a specialty.

opposing team had the winning run on third, when Yogi let a pitch get away from him.

He scrambled after the ball, pounced on it, then perceived the runner hotfooting it for the plate. At the same time the pitcher came dashing in to help, and the umpire crouched to make the proper call.

Yogi wasn't taking any chances. He slapped the ball on the runner, the batter, his batting mate, and then, for good measure, tagged the umpire. "I don't know which," he proclaimed triumphantly, "but one of you birds is out!"

Here are some of the terms that have cropped up now and then since the war to add zest-or perhaps confusion-to the art of naming economic trends.

Recession. The term now being bandied about again has been used twice before since the war. It mans a turn down in business, an up urn in unemployment, a slackening all along the line-but milder than the old fashioned term of depression. After the dread 1930s that word has become all but outlawed.

Instead of meaning the expansion or contraction of the money supply through wise or unwise government poliwise or unwise government policies as they once did, they now are widely used to describe trends in the cost of living or in general business activity. But when the last recession didn't come up with the expected drop in consumer prices, two new concepts were brought forward.

Ohio GOP Chief Shuns DiSalle Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)-Ohio Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss today released copies of a letter to Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle in which Bliss declined to become involved in a proposed bipartisan study of state finances.

Bliss told DiSalle his suggestion -made only a few hours before the GOP state convention met Sept. 12-should have been directed to Republican legislative leader and distributed balloons and

"It should be more properly directed to C. Stanley Mechem, our minority leader of the Senate, and Roger Cloud, our minority leader of the House, who are men of complete integrity and who have had years of experience with the state's problems," Bliss wrote.

DiSalle made his original proposal in a news conference and reduced it to writing in a letter to Bliss three days after the GOP convention. Bliss wrote in reply:

"The lateness of the hour and the original method of communication led me to conclude that you were far more interested in newspaper headlines than any serious consideration of your sugges-

high s c h o o l facilities such as offcampus brahenes of state universities, two-year community or junior colleges, or ttchnical training

For many students the commun ity college might be the ideal posthigh school training. Surveys have shown that many students do not want, or need, a full four years of college. Currently in California 63 community colleges are operating, all under the control of local public schools. They are supported by a combination of state aid and local taxes. In New York, 17 two-year institutions are financed on a onethird basis, (tuition, local and state), with control vested in local boards of trustees.

THE technical institute has already been introduced here. Several, all under local school boards, Qualify for will be open this fall. Their purpose is to prepare their graduates for speialized jobs within the board field of engineering, generally as draftsmen, laboratory technicians, tool designers, etc.

Almost 10,000 students will take advantage of the 27 branches of state universities this fall, thus relieving campus congestion. Building space is provided by local public schools while the instructors commute from the university.

These and other solutions are currently being studied by the Commission for Education Beyond the High School, which will report to the General Assembly early in

The problems will also be dis cussed at the State House Conferal and state meetings this fall.

Most Ohioans Medical Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Only a very small minority could fail to qualify for benefits under the Ohio plan to help the medically indigent, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle asserted today.

He reiterated to newsmen that a special session of the Legislature is not needed for Ohio to participate extensively in the new fedral health care program.

The program will help Ohioans over 65, who are not on old age pension rolls, to pay medical bills they are financially unable to meet. The federal government will pay about half the cost

Groot, Larker, Mays Neck_and-Neck with Only 4 Games Left

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS It's Dick Groat .3250, Norm Larker .3248 and Willie Mays 3203 with four games left in the race for the National League bat-

Groat, the Pittsburgh shortstop who hasn't been at bat since Sept. 6 because of a broken wrist, expects to return in a tune up for the World Series as the pennantwinning Pirates play a three-game finale against Milwaukee this weekend. The Bucs were idle Wednesday.

Larker was 1-for-3 as Los Angeles defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2 Wednesday night. The Dodger first baseman doubled and scored their first run, then knocked in the clincher with a

Mays, the San Francisco center fielder who is the only past batting champ among the three contenders, was hitless in four trips and lost two points as the Chicago Cubs licked the fifth-place Giants with a 6-3 dtcision.

Milwaukee whipped Philadelphia 9-3, with Lew Burdette winning his 19th, in the only other game scheduled in the NL. That gave the Braves a 11/2-game edge over St. Louis in their race for second-place money.

In the American League, the champion New York Yankees won their 12th in a row with a 6-3 decision at Washington, but catcher Elston Howard suffered a possible broken finger and may be lost for the World Series. Boston beat Baltimore 5-4-with Ted Williams hitting a home run in his last at bat and then announcing his immediate retirement. Kansas City rapped Cleveland 4-0 behind the three-hit pitching of Ned Ed Mathews hit his 39th home three runs as the Braves tagged loser Jim Owens (4-14) and four relievers for 14 hits.

A two-run homer by Sammy Taylor did it for the Cubs as they came from behind with three runs in the sixth off Jack Sanford (12-14). Bob Anderson (9-11) was

3 County Teams Ready for Games

Ashville resumes gridiron warfare tomorrow with a trip to The Plains High School at Mt. Sterling for an encounter.

Logan Elm and Scioto Twp. are scheduled for games with reserve teams Saturday. Logan Elm, seeking its fourth win in four starts, travels to Pike-ton, Scioto goes to West Jefferson for its second game of the season and in search of an initial win. Ashville has won one, lost one and tied one.

TESSERA CORLON

When you see it, you'll agree - this new Armstrong vinyl floor, Tessera Corlon, is unique. And different. It actually has depth. You can look down into it. The softly colored vinyl chips set in translucent vinyl form fascinating random patterns. Tes sera's natural textured effect adds elegance to any interior, yet never dominates. It's available in monochromatic stylings or with accent chips of contrasting colors. And Tessera can be used in every part of your home (even in a basement hideaway).

If you can't stop in to inspect this wonderfully new vinyl flooring - write or call today for samples and information.

Louisville Slugging Wins Series Opener

TORONTO (AP) - The opener of the Little World Series, touted as a pitchers' battle, was won by the big bat of Louisville's Mack

The 21-year-old centerfielder singled and homered to drive in all his team's runs Wednesday night in a 4-1 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs in the first game of the best-of-seven series.

Dial Phone System Ready

Fairfield Towns Switch Set Sunday

Telephone engineers ar poised and set in two Fairfield County Communities-to activate new dial systems for Baltimore and Pleasantville early Sunday.

At the stroke of 2:01 a. m., more than 2,000 phones will switch from manual operations to dial. Conversion of the two exchanges will put the entire Circleville district of General Telephone Co. on the dial basis.

Modern, complex central office switching equipment and dial phones have been installed and are being tested. New directories listing seven - digit phone numbers are being distributed.

trict Commercial manager, said the conversions will cap several years of planning, engineering and construction. The company has spent more than $400,000 to complete them. While the conversions take place, phone numbers at the Millersport exchange north of Baltimore will change to seven digits. The Millersport exchange north of Baltimore will change to seven digits. The Millersport area already is dial oper-

HERE'S WHAT the change means: The two-letter, five -digit system commonly used in Ohio will instead be all numerals.

The two - letter prefix - or central office name - that Millersport now uses is "HOward." On Sunday, with ANC the "H" an the "O" will revert to their numerical counterparts on the dial -"4"

As such, a typical Millersport phone number -say "HOward 7 2299"-will switch to "467-2299." At Baltimore, phone numbers will use the prefix "862," and Pleasant-

Across the nation the trend toward ANC is being made because of rapid population growth. The amount of acceptable central office names is expected to be exhausted in a few years, he said.

All-Number Calling will almost double the quantity of phone numbers possible with seven turns of the dial.

Manager Fuller said ANC paves the way for many future telephone improvements, such as universal numbering system, international direct dialing and miniaturized instruments.

A new central office building was constructed at Baltimore and Pleasantville to house switching equipment and commercial offices. The Baltimore exchange also serves two other Fairfield communities-Basil and Thurston.

The three exchanges cover more than 100 square miles in Fairfield and parts of Perry and Licking counties. They serve more than 2,500

Sesqui Pageant Dates Are Set

As part of the Pickaway County Sesquicentennial celebration, the Pickaway County Historical Society will present a pageant in the Fairgrounds Coliseum on November 1 and 2.

The pageant, which will be presented by a large cast of local people, is titled, "A Pageant of Logan, Chief of the Mingoes", written by Tom and Grace Hab-

The pageant opens with a prologue eulogizing Chief Logan and his native lands. In episode one, "The Indian Thanksgiving" preparations for the Indian thanksgiving feast are made by Chief Logan; Alvaretta, Logan's wife; and

The Indians chant their praises weeks of advanced individual to the Great Spirit for their food, training at the Artillery and Miss- and Indian dancers add their rhythym to the chant.

The episode two, "Logan Speaks Against War", the scene shifts from the Indian village to the forests near Samokin, Penn., where warriors of Chief Minnisco's tribe, decked in war paint, hold a war dance and council of war.

Chief Logan makes a dramatic appearance and warns the Indians that their entering the French and Indian War on either side will seal the doom of the Indians. Chief Minnisco and the other Indians finally agree with Logan as the episode
